

"It was always a pleasurable experience working with their always professional and easy going staff. They will climb mountains to guarantee customer satisfaction and tackle any challenges presented with a positive attitude."

-St. Louis Organizing Committee, NCAA Women's Basketball Championship Event 2009

"I hate to single anyone out. All staff members were a pleasure to work with. Everyone was extremely friendly, courteous & very accommodating to our needs. It was a pleasure working with all staff members. Everything was wonderful. I wouldn't have changed a thing."

- WorldTek Travel Management

for University of Connecticut fans traveling to the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship Event

"There were several weather delays we experienced with flights and participants arriving later than expected. DSL was incredible at handling changes. Thank you for all of your help in making this program a success."
